Appomattox Seventh-day Adventist Church
W. Y. Young, laymen, was in charge of the Worship Service Sabbath, Oct. 17, 1964. Subject A continuation of the "Second Coming of Christ". Scripture Eph. 5:14-16 "Wherefore he saith wake thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead and Christ will give thee light. See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise, Redeeming the time because the days are evil." "The whole world is in confusion today said Mr. Young, and people are perishing in their sins because of a lack of knowledge to discern right from wrong. Things are shaping rapidly for the last great conflict. Surely no one can deny this."

Sabbath, Oct. 24 is "World Temperance Day" in all Adventists Churches throughout the world, an offering will be taken up to aid in helping millions to a better way of life, without alcohol and tobacco. "We need to work in the interest of temperance reform and to make this question one of living interest. This is one way in which we may become fishers of men." Temp. P. 252.

Sabbath School 9:30 a.m.
Worship Service — 11 o'clock

Home Society Head Named

Mrs. Harry G. Lawson, of Appomattox, will serve as chairman of this year's fund raising campaign in Appomattox County for Children's Home Society of Virginia, Richard H. Catlett, president of the society announced today.

Mr. Catlett said "we are very happy to have Mrs. Lawson serve in this capacity.

"The Society took 167 babies into care last year but the calls for help were so great that we had to turn away a very large number of other babies whose parents asked us to find homes for them. The situation around the State is becoming more acute and we need to raise a larger amount this year if we are going to keep up with the increasing need.

"A baby without a home" continued Catlett "is in a very vulnerable position. He may become a victim of neglect or malnutrition or he may suffer from the lack of love and guidance which a good family can give him. Please give as generously as possible to help these tiny citizens."

Eastern Star

The Appomattox Chapter No. 10 order of the Eastern Star is compiling a Centennial Cook Book which will feature recipes of famous people and southern recipes from the women of the community.

The Cook book is being published for the benefit of the Eastern Star and all profits from the sale of the books will go into the treasury to further the work while projects which the organization sponsores.

Anyone who has a receipe and would like to share it, please mail a copy of it to Mrs. Wm. E. Chenault.

Three Seniors Compete For Homecoming Title

One of three seniors of Appomattox High will be selected as Homecoming Queen Friday evening during half-time ceremonies as Rebels meet Gretna, 8 p.m. at Brear Stadium.

Becky Barger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry T. Barger; Susan O'Brien, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Clyde O. O'Brien, and Gloria Reynolds, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Reynolds, a'e the three pert and pretty lasses selected by classmates, Junior, sophomore, and freshman princesses have also been chosen to appear during the traditional colorful activities of Homecoming.

Prompt medical treatment — including attention to rehabilitation — can lessen the amount of damage caused by a stroke, according to Virginia Heart Association.
